Pupils Finishing Eighth Grade Were Presented Their Diplomas—Programme of Music and Recitations.

The school year in the schools of the town was ended on Thursday with the graduation exercises for the eighth

Large numbers of the parents and friends of the pupils were present at the different school buildings when the programmes were held at 2:30 in the

EXPECT STATE FARM TO DEVELOP STRONG ARGUMENT
In Favor of This Method of Care of Inebriates.

The current issue of the Connecticut Citizen says:
The state farm for inebriates will be tried out in a small way for the next two years at the Gallup farm near the town of New Britain. The insane near Norwich. About fifty men will be taken in hand and when their quarters are arranged will be set to work at such jobs as are available. This is not a permanent arrangement but was all that could be worked out this year, and will give a test of the workableness of the scheme. Superintendent H. M. Pollock will have charge and we are sure that with his great interest in the farm project he will work out the details in such a way that in 1917 we will have strong arguments for the permanent institution on a large scale at some other point. Keep up the education of this project and it is bound to come.

PRESTON CITY GRANGE HAD FEATURE NIGHT.
Left-Handed Strawberry Supper Was Its Big Event.

Preston City was certainly on the move Tuesday evening of this week for the majority of the patrons and their friends throughout the countryside gathered there to enjoy a left-handed strawberry supper. The grange was represented by a "busload of 54, including such notables as Worthy Master Jewett and wife, Pomona Lester, Mrs. Madeline Ellis, Judge and Mrs. John H. Barnes, Kinkaid, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gager, Bozrah was upheld by C. E. Davis and family and the new law firm of C. E. Davis and Varian V. Jones represented North Stonington. Mr. Lucas came from Poque-tonick, and there were many others who escaped the eye of the press committee. Quite a few prospective grangers were interspersed in the crowd, among whom were Harold Robbins, Lester Durant, Mrs. Norman, Wilton Dawley, Charles H. Barnes and family, and many more who joined in, made merry, and on leaving voiced the sentiment that they would like to continue the pleasant associations by becoming a member and enjoying every meeting.

Some small tables were filled at 8:30.
Some talked through the entire course without hitting a snag, while others were not so successful and were relieved of a nickel every time the activity of the new law firm of C. E. Davis and Varian V. Jones was mentioned.
After the tables were cleared, an hour of music, fun and good fellowship was spent.
Barnes called on the following to respond as indicated: A piano solo by Miss E. C. Jewett was followed by a solo good thought about better enforcement of automobile laws, naming of highways and farms and thereby giving more distinction to the vocation of farming and to the farmers' environment.

A piano solo by Belle Stevenson, C. E. Davis, master of Bozrah grange, responded in a pleasant reminiscent vein. A vocal solo by Mrs.
J. M. Richardson was followed by Dr.
Kinkaid, who did so well on his piano solo that he was forced to return after prolonged applause and rendered that beautiful classic Sympathy, much to the amusement of all. Judge Barnes followed the dentist and limbered up his wit. His Honor elucidated on nature, giving in a masterly way a philosophy of plants through the medium of bugs and bees, using it as an illustration to show that he gave a quarter and took a good appetizer, the cravings of the inner man. The judge is glad that he is a granger and also, by the way, that his wife and he are on friendly terms.

John Peckham gave a solo, and Mr.
Gager was next called upon and responded briefly. The programme continued with solo, Miss Josephine Hollowell; recitation, Zephyrus Barnes; remarks, Bro. Rockwood; solo, Hattie Bennett; Bro. Potter when called upon joined Mrs. Bliss' conspiracy against Lecturer Barnes.
Mrs. Bliss was awarded the prize, which seemed to answer best as a body guard, for being the most adept at using the left hand.

And then came the end of a perfect evening. Bro. A. D. Zabriskie was somewhat disappointed to find that his horse did not want his company home, as it had gone on and left him.

HERMAN POLLOCK'S AUTO LICENSE REVOKED

By Secretary of State—Was in Accident in Town of Franklin.

Secretary of State Charles D. Burnes in his findings Wednesday ordered the revocation of the license of Herman Pollock of Gurleyville. The text of the finding follows:

"A hearing in the above case was held before me on June 15, 1915. I have reviewed the testimony offered and I find that Herman Pollock was concerned in an accident in the town of Franklin on May 9, 1915, near Fuller's corner.
"It appears from the evidence that Herman Pollock drove his car round Fuller's corner at a fast rate of speed and ran into a car operated by George S. Clark of Mansfield Center, when

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.
Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the authentic strength outline; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

requested by Mr. Clark to give his name, he refused to do so.

"In his application to this office for a motor vehicle operator's license on March 26, 1915, he stated that he was 15 years of age. The records of the board of education show that the parents of Herman Pollock appeared before Registrar Bradley M. Sears of Mansfield on Dec. 30, 1912, and took oath that he was born in Russia on June 14, 1898. He is, therefore, 17 years of age. His license is, therefore, void, and I order the same revoked."
